

June 1, 2023

Lisa's Intuitive Art Message from Lisa

When I first connected to your energy I saw the image of a red tale hawk around you and then a vision, of you sitting on a rock overlooking mountain, lake, and forest scenery. It's a place that you visit many times in your dreams, daydreaming, and when you meditate. It's your calming and relaxing place. It's time you get outside more in nature and explore new places and opportunities. You are more alive when you are outside in nature. As you sit on the rocks, notice that you are looking into the future where new possibilities are unfolding. Take more time to relax, dream and imagine the life you really want. See your power animal, the hawk, which encompasses the drawing. The redtail hawk has appeared to you throughout your adult life reminding you that you are intelligent, clairvoyant, adaptable and spiritually aware. (more below)

Your original IAM piece of artwork is 8" x 8" and mounted on an 11" x 11" matte board.

The symbol of the colors used:

Yellow (Solar Plexus Chakra) – Strengthen your self esteem, confidence and personal power. Step into and own your power. Laugh, play, sing and dance more.

Call in Angel Sarah to help clear any feelings of powerlessness and she will offer you the healing gift of empowerment.

Green (Heart Chakra) – Let your emotions out and as you do, trust and follow your heart. Be more compassionate, forgiving, kind and loving to yourself. Follow the paths that make your heart sing. Call in Angel Cassiel and she will help you clear any heartache or betrayal you feel and will offer you the healing gift of unconditional love.

Blue (Throat Chakra) – Continue to use your voice and communicate what you truly want. Say it out aloud so the universe, guides, loved ones and angels hear you. Speak, write and believe your own truth. Call in Angel Celestina she will help you clear away any stuck feelings of not being able to express yourself and offer you the healing gifts of creative and self expression.

Pink (Heart 4th Chakra) – This is the centre chakra having three chakras above it and three below. It is also connected to your heart chakra too. It represents love, relationships and spiritually. Pink can be a calming color and well as inspiring. Embrace this color pink and feel more of comfort and joy. Call in Angel Cassiel and she will help you clear any heart blockages or concerns. She will offer you a blanket of the healing gift of love, kindness and gentleness.

The symbol of the redtail hawk: The hawk symbolizes visionary power and guardianship. The hawk is a messenger. Notice and watch for signs from the hawk as there could be a big change in your future. Embrace your keen sense of knowingness. Trust and embrace what you know is true. Be brave and stop living in fear. Soar above it all and take time to step out of yourself to obtain a better perspective. Like the hawk you have the power, courage and strength to move mountains and remember you are fully protected in all realms.

The symbol of the Temple: Notice in the distance a temple, which is there as a reminder that your body is a temple. It's a holy instrument that needs love, caring, nurturing and healing. Take more time to connect with all your senses, even your sixth sense, as you are divinely connected to God, masters, teachers and loved ones. You need to take more care of your body inside and out. Also this temple symbolizes a bridge between earth and heaven which provides a path for a journey of ascension.

The symbols of the Buddha: See the Buddha statue to the left of where you are sitting in the drawing. This is there to help remind you to slow down more and find an inner serenity. Also it symbolizes enlightenment, protection, and the realization of your own potential. Sometimes you have a disconnection between your mind and body so take time to meditate more this will help give you more peace and mental clarity. The Buddha also is there to remind you to laugh and play more. This will help you move energy bringing more joy and happiness into your life.

The symbol of the red cardinal: See the red cardinal sitting on the rock nearby you in the drawing. It's a symbol of good luck, loyalty or even a spiritual message that you are about to receive some good news. Be open and embrace the messages and signs you are seeing. Also, cardinals appear when angels are nearby. The vibrancy of the red cardinal is uplifting and a happy sign of those loved ones we have lost like your grandmother. Remember you have the strength, self confidence and inner strength, and keep on encouraging yourself to embrace your talent.

The symbol of the red sneakers: You're wearing red sneakers which symbolize hope, passion, support and love. It was your favorite color as a child too. It's also a reminder for you to keep moving and stay grounded as much as possible. Get outside as much as possible and walk, hike and run. Be more playful!

The symbol of the dark blue starry night sky peeking through the background: This is a reminder that you are connected to the universe and stars. You have infinite possibilities and messages, synchronicity, symbols and signs are coming to you. These messages are often signs that can reassure you that you are on the right path. You just need to be open to this. The stars are a beacon of hope; sending you positivity, love, happiness and renewal.

Heartlinks and blessings,

Lisa

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Each IAM will be digitally scanned and emailed to you once you have received your original. I know many clients are private and do not wish to share their (IAM) messages but if you wish to share it on social media such as Facebook or Instagram please tag me! You can type in @Lisa.greenleaf2 for Facebook and @lisagreenleaf8 for Instagram. The @symbol will trigger a page tag as opposed to just typing it in. Also when sharing on Instagram/Facebook, feel free to use any (or all) of the following: #lisagreenleafintuitiveartmessages #lisagreenleafIAM #lisagreenleafhealer #lisagreenleafartist #lisagreenleafintuitive.

A LITTLE MORE ABOUT LISA:

I have been an artist since childhood and have naturally been channeling my artwork, either through my fine art, children's book illustrations, graphic design and presently with my IAM's. When clients see my artwork, it invokes a loving, peaceful, happy, calming and enlightening feeling. With your own unique personalized IAM, you are receiving a visual energy art creation that may help you awaken, shift, heal and perhaps guide you on your spiritual path and journey.