

School Visits & Educational Programs for Pre-K, K thru 12

Lisa Greenleaf is available for school visits and educational programs at schools, libraries or other venues. Her programs are creative, exciting, inspiring, and tailored to any age. She loves motivating the artist, writer and musician within you!

Programs Offered:

Discover the Artist, Writer and Designer in You

Have you ever had a desire to draw, paint, write or maybe design? Lisa will explain where her ideas come from and how she begins her creative process with drawing and writing. She will share her childhood stories, anecdotes and struggles that she encountered as a writer, artist and musician.

Lisa will display some of her childhood art, plus share her current portfolio of sketches, manuscripts, fine art and published books. She will bring her ukulele along for a sing-a-long!

Throughout her program, Lisa's excitement and enthusiasm will help motivate and inspire you to ignite your potential. Her message. . . "Never give up on your ideas and dreams because you never know where they may lead you."

Q & A will be included in her presentation.

Program for Grades K- 12, 1 hour

Can accommodate audience sizes up to 200 individuals.

How to Design and put a Book Together

Do you have an idea for a book? Learn how to put your stories, poems, essays and drawings into a book. Lisa will take you through the steps of a writing, editing, proofing, sketching and story-boards to a final layout.

She will review the basic parts of a book and explain typeface styles, art and photo choices. She also shares the importance of a good cover to convey your story's subject. This process is exciting and with the right tools and direction, Lisa helps you learn how to create a book, of which you will be excited and proud.

Program for grades 1 - 12, 1 hour • Class size: 6-30 individuals.

Sing-a-long with Lisa Greenleaf & Bob Pope

Bring music into the classroom with musicians, Lisa and Bob. With their guitars, ukulele, kazoos, tambourines, drums and voices, they will entertain with traditional children's songs, folk songs, the classics, and holiday songs. They will interact with your children and have them singing, laughing and dancing. Music is a great way to bring your group together and let the children express themselves in a musical and playful way.

Program for Grades Pre-K-3rd, 50 to 60 minutes.

Artist in Residence

Combine any of the programs listed in this brochure and invite Lisa to come into your school, library, institution, or home for a multi-day experience. For more information and scheduling, contact Lisa directly.

Artist-in-Residence Program, 1- 3 days

Learn the Art of Doodling

Art inspired by nature that helps you relax.

Learn the creative art of doodling with "Mind Doodlez." This is a style of art that anyone can learn. If you can write your name with a pen, draw a crooked line, or make a funny shape, you will discover the artist within. This simple form of art will help you relax, reduce stress, improve your focus, and just have fun.

With simple instructions from Lisa, you will learn easy designs, techniques, and nature-inspired patterns. She will teach you how to create black-and-white patterns and how to add playful spots of color to your art. Anyone can become an artist. . . Just Breathe and Believe.

Supply list will be provided before each program.

Program for Grades 1 - 12, 1 to 1-1/2 hours

About Lisa:

Lisa Greenleaf is an award-winning, author/illustrator, motivational speaker, graphic designer, fine-art artist, creative consultant and musician. Growing up in the small coastal town of Manchester By-the-Sea, MA and on the shores of Province Lake, NH she was inspired by the many sights, sounds and the love of the ocean and the White Mountains. At a very young age, she discovered her passion for drawing and painting, which helped her develop and harness her many gifts, talents and insights.

In 2004, Lisa established Greenleaf Design Studio, a small business that provides clients with full graphic design services, book designing/publishing, illustrations, fine art, website designs, motivational programs, educational programs, classes and workshop. Her background and knowledge in the corporate and art worlds have given Lisa additional perspectives in how she can assist in your creative needs as well as inspire you in your own business and life endeavors.

Lisa has illustrated, written, designed and contributed to over 27 books. Some of her award-winning books include *John Greenleaf Whittier's The Barefoot Boy, Feathers & Trumpets: A Story of Hildegard of Bingen, *When Rivers Burned: The Earth Day Story, and Women of the Granite State, Women of the Bay State (part of the America's Notable Women Series), The Life of Sarah Josepha Hale. In 2008 and 2009, Women of the Granite State and Sarah Hale were selected to represent the state of New Hampshire at the National Book Festival in Washington, D.C.

Lisa is a member of Society of Children's Books Writers and Illustrators (SCBWI.org), In the Presence of Positive Women (IPPW.org), and the Nashua Area Artists Association. She has been featured in newspapers, TV, radio, art shows and book events. Lisa is an accomplished motivational speaker and has made many presentations at events and programs, sharing her stories, anecdotes, inspirational messages, music and tools that she incorporates throughout her work and daily life.

Lisa currently lives in NH with her two children, her fiance Bob and two adorable dogs. She enjoys illustrating, writing, meditating, yoga, kayaking, singing and playing the guitar & ukulele.
