The Barefoot Boy Book Springs to Life Again

Lisa will share her story, history, and journey about how she brought her ancestor's well-loved poem, The Barefoot Boy by John Greenleaf Whittier, to life with 26 full color enchanting illustrations. Her book also includes a biography of Mr. Whittier, describing his achievements and accomplishments as a Quaker an abolitionist, a mentor to Louisa May Alcott, and a contemporary of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, and the other Fireside Poets.

Lisa will also give a sneak peek of books she is presently working on. Plus, she will bring along other art work, books and notecards to view, purchase, and autograph.
